To whom this may concern,

I am excited to apply for an available teaching position. As an educator, I am confident in my ability to make a positive impact on students and contribute to the growth and success of your district.

The following experiences and qualifications prepare me well for a teaching position:

- Bachelor of Kinesiology
- Bachelor of Education
- Experience with Universal Design for Learning and Differentiated Instruction
- Experience with formative and summative practice
- Completion of numerous professional development opportunities.
- Extensive experience working with diverse populations of students in different settings, including public and private schools, as well as community organizations.

Throughout my education and practicum experiences, I have demonstrated a strong commitment to student achievement and success. I have a proven track record of implementing engaging and effective instructional strategies that meet the needs of diverse learners. Additionally, I am skilled in creating a positive and inclusive classroom culture that fosters a love of learning and encourages student participation.

As a teacher, I strive to create a collaborative and supportive environment where students feel valued and empowered. I am also committed to building strong relationships with parents and families and believe that open communication and regular feedback are key to ensuring student success.
